UK INDEPENDENCE PARTY

THE BULLETIN

They're lying about the EU. We'll be much better off out!

Cameron, Clegg & Miliband, the 'LibLabCon'- are lying about the European Union. We don't need to be in the EU to trade with the EU, that's just another scare story. It's a gravy train for bureaucrats and big business. Two of our richest neighbours, Switzerland and Norway, are not members of this crumbling, fraudulent socialist experiment. When we leave the EU trade will continue because the EU needs our business. We buy far more from them, than they buy from us. Over 70% of our laws are now made by the bossy EU. Brussels even dictates our rubbish collections, how much our vacuum cleaners suck, how our toilets flush, how loud our MP3 players are and wants satellites to control how fast we drive.

Immigration out of control - Labour admits 'spectacular mistake'

The clock is ticking. The LibLabCon (Cameron, Miliband and Clegg) are opening Britain's doors to another massive wave of immigration. Under EU rules, 29 million men, women and children from Romania and Bulgaria will be entitled to walk right in, to use our hospitals, schools, housing and benefits system. Britain's poorest will suffer the most and more competition will depress wages. At the same time we're making it difficult for qualified, non-EU people that industry needs, to enter. The British people were never asked whether they wanted open borders, they were deceived by disloyal politicians.

A UKIP government would restore Britain's borders and put in place an immigration policy, similar to that in Australia.

Another successful regional conference...

UKIP roars ahead!

UKIP is the fastest growing party in Britain today, the first real force for change in 100 years. We've already beaten Tories, Labour and LibDems in elections in many parts of Britain. People are joining us in their thousands, because we tell the truth. Voters are tired of crony capitalism and champagne socialism. We are not in the pocket of big business or trade unions. We are loyal to our country and our policies are commonsense. Join UKIP for a strong, compassionate Britain, open for business with the world.

by Lizzy Vaid UKIP, London.

They have failed a generation...

There are 20 million jobless in the Eurozone. Many are now heading to Britain but we have 2.5 million unemployed of our own, including 1 million 18-24 year olds. 'Open Borders' is a nonsense, which UKIP will end.

London is under attack...

Financial Services is our biggest single industry. The £60bn in tax that it raises supports over half the NHS. But the EU wants a slice of the action and is slowly taking control. UKIP will fight to keep the City British.

So glad I quit the Tory party...

The Tories used to support businesses and help young people. But now only UKIP has policies for lower taxes and small government. That's why I quit and joined UKIP; to fight for a strong, prosperous, independent Britain.

Where does the money go?

EU finances haven't been audited for 19 years because no auditors will touch their accounts. Billions go missing every year. We pay £53 million a day to be members. We get little for our money, just more 'directives'.

Nigel Farage, MEP.

Don't confuse Europe with the EU. Europe is a place; the EU is a process...

We've been right all along, the EU is NOT about trade, it's about power politics by a self appointed elite, using your money to promote their agenda - and it's failing. EU unemployment is a disgrace; an entire generation has been cheated. Southern Europe is on German life support. The 'open borders' policy is social engineering of the worst kind. Our own politicians, putting careers before country, still won't tell you the truth and most of our media hasn't the guts to challenge them. UKIP have requested a live television debate but of course, it has been refused. But there is a simple solution: just vote UKIP. We're not only right on the EU, we've been right all along on Foreign Aid, Defence, Education and Law & Order. We're also the only party opposed to the foolish HS2 rail scheme, which won't get very far on expensive, unsightly wind power.

Support UKIP. Join UKIP. Vote UKIP.

Follow me: @Nigel_Farage

Windfarms need conventional power stations running 24/7 for when the wind doesn't blow.

Fuel bills going through the roof - EU green taxes are a scam...

We've all been taken for a ride. The latest report on global warming reluctantly admits the planet is not warming anywhere near the levels predicted by the 'warmists'. It's been a great scam for 'green taxes' and for manufacturers of solar panels that don't work after dark and windmills that don't work when the wind drops. We have industrialised our landscapes with turbines that might boil a kettle but certainly wouldn't move a train. Labour's 'price freeze promise' will simply lead to power cuts. Britain's CO2 output is around 1.75% of the world total, partly because we've outsourced our manufacturing to China, which produces 23%.

UKIP says NO to phoney 'green taxes'. Read more at ukip.org

They will not silence us!

The 1975 'Common Market' referendum was an historic deception. Politicians knew the real purpose of the European Union was the eradication of nation states, a Europe divided into regions, not countries. This is what 'open borders' is really all about Most of our MPs are onboard this scheme with its associated EU vanity projects like HS2 Conservatives talk about a referendum but it's a fantasy; statistically they cannot win the next General Election. Even if they did, it would be a repeat of the 1975 referendum stitch up. 'Renegotiation' is a myth.

Only one referendum matters now: voting UKIP!

European Court of Human Rights - judges living in cloud cuckoo land...

A known violent rapist, Arthur Hutchinson, broke into a house, stabbed to death the parents and brother of a bride hours after her wedding, then brutally raped an 18 year old girl. Caught, he received a life sentence, in one of our comfy jails. Recently he appealed to the ECHR for leniency. They ruled that his whole-life prison sentence was 'degrading and inhuman'. ECHR judges also think that prisoners should be allowed to vote and said that the rights of radical cleric Abu Qatada trump our national security.

The ECHR is an affront to decent law abiding people, They think the rights of criminals matter more than the rights of victims. UKIP says "Elected MPs should make our laws, not unelected foreign judges".

Want change? Vote UKIP.

Winter blunderland

- Event closed down after just one day following thousands of complaints
- Visitors slam cost of attractions that took '10 minutes' to walk around
- Plastic ice rink and 'skinny' Santa who gave out paper and crayon gifts

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

THE community has pulled together to save Christmas after Winter Wonderland became Winter Woeful-land at the weekend.

The event in Campbell Park was cancelled after just one day following thousands of complaints and Papworth Trust, the charity due to be benefitting from the proceeds, pulling out.

But the problems did not stop there after one supplier, Andrew Darlington from D&D Marquees, had about £5,000 worth of equipment stolen because he was not told the event had been shut down on Sunday and the site was left unmanned.

However, organiser Lorenzo Franco has hit back at all the criticism, claiming a few 'teething problems' on the first day were sorted out. He also blamed 'high winds' and the 'social media attack' for the event's closure.

It opened on Saturday promising 'a truly magical experience that family memories are made of' and an 'abundance of attractions, activities and special performances'.

But when visitors arrived, what they found was a small 'plastic' ice rink, an unrealistic, thin Santa, who had 'a costume from Poundland' and handed out crayons and paper, and a lack of stalls, meaning it only took 10 minutes to walk around the whole event.

Now disappointed residents have decided to set up their own Mini Wonderland MK this weekend with the help of MKIce, which has recently opened a temporary rink in the Food Hall in Midsummer Boulevard.

Destroying dreams: On the right how Santa was advertised on the Winter Wonderland website and, left, how he appeared at the event.

Those who had pre-booked tickets for the ice rink at Winter Wonderland are being offered the chance to skate at the venue for free.

And anyone who had bought tickets to the grotto will be able to see Santa on a first come, first served basis on Saturday and Sunday from 10am-4pm by emailing miniwonderlandmk@gmail.com.

Many visitors had pre-booked tickets for the ice rink and circus at Winter Wonderland, which cost £8 per adult and £4 per child, and Santa's grotto, which cost £6 for children. All those who booked tickets for the attractions are being promised a refund by the organiser and the trading standards team at Milton Keynes Council is investigating whether any offences have taken place.

Mr Franco, 31, from Bedford, said: "I apologise to everyone who was disappointed and I put my hands up – it has gone wrong.

"We are giving a full refund for all the attractions. We can't put a time on it, but we are trying to work through them."

A spokesman from The Parks Trust, which allowed Campbell Park to be used for the event, said: "Before The Parks Trust hires out any sites to third parties we do ensure that organisers have robust health and safety policies, are fully insured and have a detailed event management plan in place."

Steven Gordon Wilson, CEO of Destination MK, which promotes the city, said: "It has definitely had a negative impact on Milton Keynes as it has been in all the national papers.

"We just want to look forward to the events we have coming up at Milton Keynes Bowl and with the International Festival next year that will help us recover from this."

"THE outfit must have come from Poundland, worn by someone who has no resemblance to Santa. It looked like one of the stall holders had just quickly put on the outfit."
Zoe Paye, from Oxley Park

"WE PAID £126 for 24 of us to go ice skating. We were so looking forward to a magical day all together, but the kids were really disappointed. This has ruined Christmas for so many."
Kerry Mainwaring, from Northampton

"WE WENT as a family day out. I've never been so disgusted in all my life, it took us about 10 minutes to walk around the whole place. We booked our two eldest sons to go ice skating, which would of been their first time on the ice and they were so excited, but it wasn't even a proper ice rink."
Amy Burge, from Aylesbury

"MY DAUGHTER asked me when we left why Santa didn't want to see her. It was heartbreaking."
Harriet Armes, from Beanhill

"IT REALLY is such a shame that Lorenzo didn't pull this off. I totally believe he thought he could do it, but he didn't realise how much is involved in creating such an event. His mistake was trying to follow in the footsteps of Hyde Park, making everybody believe it was going to be like that with his website. He bit off more then he could chew."
Sam McCallum, from Olney

"THE one positive to come out of this shambles is how people have come together to try to salvage some good out of the mess. This is the best of British and makes me proud of my country."

Charity shop is targeted in knife robbery

THIEVES targeted a charity shop in a knifepoint robbery – leaving a worker 'very shaken'.

The two robbers targeted the British Heart Foundation store in Queensway, Bletchley, shortly after 6pm on Saturday.

They demanded money from the worker, threatened her with a knife and escaped with a quantity of cash.

The first robber is described as Asian, 5ft 10ins, slim and in his early 20s.

The second man was also in his 20s, 5ft 7ins, and was wearing black trousers, red trainers and a grey hooded top. Both were wearing gloves.

They both ran away towards Brooklands Road in the direction of Water Eaton.

Detective Inspector Dave Dachtler, from Milton Keynes Police Station, said: "This offence is abhorrent because many people who work in establishments such as these give up their time for free as volunteers for good causes.

"It appears the victim thought the offenders were making a charitable donation, but when she approached the men, they threatened her with violence.

"Fortunately in this case the victim was not hurt, but was left very shaken by the incident."

Anyone with information should contact the police on 101, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Bus scheme given the red light

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A SCHEME that provides transport for thousands of adults who receive social care or have learning difficulties will stop running next year.

The MK Plus Bus provides a door-to-door service for residents who are disabled or unable to use mainstream public transport.

The service has seen an increase in membership in recent years and more than 2,800 people are currently registered to use it.

The scheme – which is run by Milton Keynes Council and costs £770,000 a year – will end when the contract ends on September 1, 2014.

The council is holding a 90-day public consultation asking for feedback on what future provision it should consider as it believes the current vehicles are 'high cost providing a relatively low level of use'.

Alternative suggestions include a volunteer driving scheme, a door-to-door service working with a voluntary organisation and working with current bus providers to make public transport more accessible.

A council spokesman said: "We are keen to listen to and receive the views of the public and interested parties on how best we can provide this service in the future."

What do you think?

Two open meetings will be held to discuss the subject, the first of which is tomorrow at Christ the Cornerstone in CMK from 3.30-5.30pm.

The second will take place at The Christian Centre in Oldbrook on January 24 from 10.30am to 12.30pm.

Settled: Travellers have been ordered to leave after setting up camp at Milton Keynes Coachway

Gypsy camp at bus station

MORE than a dozen caravans belonging to travellers have moved into Milton Keynes Coachway this week.

The 15 vehicles have been on the car park of the site, just off junction 14 of the M1, since Sunday evening.

The coachway is owned by Milton Keynes Partnership, which brings together MK Council and a number of representatives from the health, community and business sectors. A council spokesman said the travellers were 'served notice to leave' on Monday and the authority will continue to work with police.

There have been a number of recent problems with travellers in Milton Keynes. In June a mound of rubbish was left at the Blue Lagoon nature reserve in Water Eaton and taxpayers were left with a £41,000 bill for the cost of clearing up after travellers between April and October.

Hoping to score training ground

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

MK DONS could net a new training ground if plans are given the thumbs up by councillors tonight.

Members of Milton Keynes Council's cabinet are due to discuss transferring land at Tickford Fields Farm in Newport Pagnell from the authority to InterMK, which is run by Dons' chairman Pete Winkelman.

Acquiring the 79.5 acre plot would cost InterMK £2.03million and the facility that would be built there would be 'of international standard' and could also be used as a base for countries during the 2015 Rugby World Cup and international sides that may play games at stadiummk.

John Smith, chairman of Newport Pagnell Town Council, believes the training base would be a massive boost for the area.

"We would very much like the Dons to come to Newport Pagnell as this would help publicise the town," he said.

"The town as a whole would benefit from MK Dons having their training site here and if we as a community got some use of it then that would be a double bonus."

Find out the decision and give your views: www.mkweb.co.uk

In their report to councillors, officers say the training ground would be a key way to develop MK as an International Sporting City, capable of attracting elite athletes from around the world. They also say the facility would help other council aims of promoting a healthy lifestyle and increasing sporting participation in the city.

We are still not a city

THE article on the front page of last week's MK NEWS ('We could be in top five cities') is in itself good news for Milton Keynes.

The only point is that Milton Keynes is not a city and this will be the case until Her Majesty The Queen bestows this honour upon us.

It is good to read about all the top companies and developments that will impact MK in the next few years, but until we officially become a city, this is all just good reading.

Trying to lead change

WHOEVER wrote the letter 'Against cutting groups' in last week's MK NEWS is of course entitled to their opinion, but, in accusing me of being dictatorial, they couldn't be further from the truth.

Bletchley people know that our most successful campaigns (defeating the incinerator, preventing sex shops being opened in Bletchley and Fenny Stratford and saving green space at Salden Chase and Penn Road to name a few) have to be inclusive and involve a range of opinions.

I've always supported that approach and always will.

The town council does many things well, but that's no excuse for not trying to do things even better – if we just sat back and accepted that things shouldn't change this country would still have slavery, women wouldn't have the vote and small children would still be working in factories.

We need to lead change, not be dictated to by circumstances.

When the council (yes, not just me but the whole council) voted to look at how it could do things differently, I contacted every councillor personally for their views and then tried to move a compromise amendment at the last meeting.

Unfortunately this was ruled out by the chairman Angela Kennedy, who said it couldn't be discussed.

Freedom, freedom, free yourself

Fighting 'bedroom tax'

IN OCTOBER we handed in our MK Anti Bedroom Tax and Benefit Justice Campaign petition asking Milton Keynes Council not to evict social housing tenants for bedroom tax, or new council tax related arrears.

In gathering the petition's 1,000 plus signatures we encountered widespread condemnation of the bedroom tax and support for the Labour group of councillors' motion passed by the council in June, which stated that 'people adversely affected by changes to benefits will not lose their homes'.

Since then, a National Housing Federation report has shown MK is the third hardest hit town in the South East, with 1,609 low-income families being charged an average of £812 a year extra.

Twenty-three charities, including the Royal National Institute of Blind People and Carers UK, have written to David Cameron to protest at him and his ministers misleading the public by falsely claiming that disabled people are exempt from the bedroom tax.

Government statistics show the Coalition is breaking its promise to ensure that a new council home is built for every one sold (2012-13: 10,954 homes sold; 1,662 replacements started).

The the proportion of housing benefit claimants in work has continued to soar, approaching the one million mark in August – more and more claimants are in work but not being paid enough to cover their rent, let alone the bedroom tax.

The council's cabinet is due to consider our petition at the Civic Offices at 7pm today.

We will be asking it how it is dealing with the hundreds of MK families building up arrears they simply cannot afford to pay and we urge all those who feel strongly, whatever their views, to come and tell our council leaders what they think of the bedroom tax.

We need underpass

IT WAS wonderful news in last week's paper that Crest Nicholson had enough concern for Oakgrove Village residents to have provided an underpass so schoolchildren and residents can safely traverse Brickhill Street.

Perhaps Gallaghers could show a similar concern for the residents bordering Watling Street.

Initially children from the Western Expansion Area (WEA) will be attending first and middle schools in Two Mile Ash. Later children from Two Mile Ash will attend the new secondary school in the WEA and residents will want to shop in the area.

Celebrating the 175th anniversary of Wolverton Works

AS THE celebrations for the 175th anniversary of Wolverton Works come to an end, Phil Marsh takes a look back at the last 12 months.

The Wolverton community had great expectations for the Wolverton Works 175th anniversary but never anticipated it entering administration with 50 per cent of the workforce losing their jobs.

Closure fears were assuaged on August 26 when German company Knorr-Bremse bought the business.

There were five major Wolverton 175 events, two evenings at MK Museum and two at Wolverton and Milton Keynes libraries.

Perhaps the most significant event was the low-key September 15 Works Open Day raising £600 towards the sole aim of these activities. This was, and still is, to raise funds for a First World War memorial to commemorate the 213 Wolverton Works staff who died in the conflict.

There was also £300 donated from the first three months' sales of The Full Works, the official anniversary book towards the fund, and Knorr-Bremse has said it will match all the money raised.

The new owners of Wolverton Works are re-employing staff every week now as work has started on two major contracts with a third beginning in January.

One person back at the works is John Kitchen, pictured right, whose painting of Newport Nobby at Newport Pagnell station, along with others, has raised several hundred pounds for the war memorial.

The final Wolverton 175 photographic exhibition continues at Milton Keynes Central Library throughout December.

But, by popular demand, the Wolverton 175 and a new series of Wolverton Works at War and Royal Train talks by myself and Dave Hilliard will take place in 2014.

Ready for the show: Rebecca Savage from MK Food Bank with performers from Circus Fantasia

Christmas gift for hungry

FOLLOWING MK NEWS' selection box appeal, the organisers of a circus have decided to support Milton Keynes Food Bank by donating tickets to their show.

Circus Fantasia, which is currently in Bletchley, is giving 12 free tickets to be offered to the most vulnerable families and individuals in the city who will be receiving a Christmas hamper from the food bank this year.

More than 200 people who have been highlighted by the charity and professional care agencies will be given a hamper, which includes a Christmas pudding, mince pies and a present.

Those receiving the hampers will be put into a draw to win the circus tickets.

The hampers have been supported by Tesco, packaging company Macfarlane and Givaudan from the food industry.

Teenager admits to raping girl, 11

A TEENAGER has admitted raping an 11-year-old who he believed was over the age of consent.

Scott Pitchers, 19, from Milton Keynes, honestly thought the girl was 16 and agreed to what happened, St Albans Crown Court was told last Wednesday.

On the previous day she had jumped on top of Pitchers and started kissing him in front of a group of other youngsters. When asked how old she was she said: "I am 16 ain't I?"

His barrister, Peter Dahlson, said: "He was told she was 16. She appeared to be considerably older than her true age. He believed she had the capacity to consent and did consent. He did not believe what he was doing was out of order."

Prosecutor Beverly Cripps said the girl was staying at an address in Watford and Pitchers had gone there with two friends on May 18.

He had gone into the kitchen where the girl was washing the dishes and got her to perform oral sex and carried out another sexual act.

She told another girl and her mother was informed. The police were called and Pitchers was arrested. He pleaded guilty to rape (oral) and assault by penetration.

Mr Dahlson said since the incident Pitchers had tried to hang himself and had also taken an overdose.

Judge Stephen Gullick told him: "You believed she was 16. Had you known that was not the case, you would not have done what you did."

He passed an 18-month jail sentence suspended for two years with two years' supervision.

Pitchers must register as a sex offender for 10 years.

No free parking for shoppers

MILTON Keynes Council has said it will not be offering free parking for shoppers this Christmas.

Neighbouring places like Bedford and Northampton have scrapped parking charges over the festive period, but a spokesman from the council said: "CMK is popular every December with shoppers and has a high number of parking spaces at reasonable rates, including free parking after 6pm. For these reasons the council doesn't feel the need for any Christmas offers on parking."

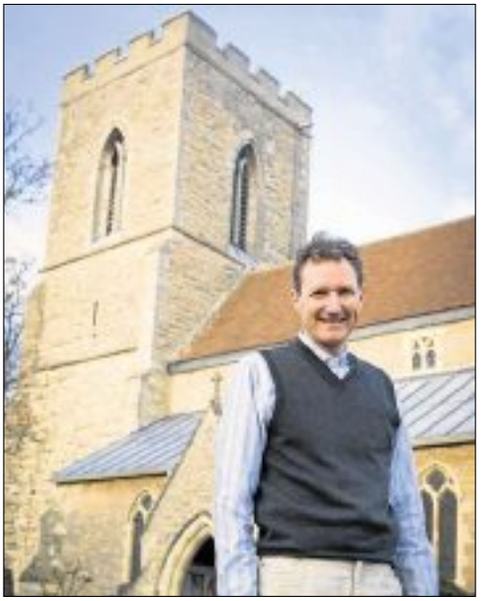
Matt has faith in new role



A NEWLY-installed rector wants to get young families and children involved with the church.

Matt Trendall, pictured left, who has been in his post at St Mary's Church in Wavendon for nearly two months, wants the church to be a place where the community can gather with their children.

"My priority is to help the church connect with families and young people," said the father-of-two.

"Milton Keynes really appears to me like a great place for families to settle.

"We have a fantastic church community here so we want to grow that and work among families."

He added the potential expansion of Wavendon by about 3,000 houses is also a real opportunity to get more people involved.

"It's a real opportunity for the church because it places us right in the middle of the community," he said.

The rector has moved to Wavendon with wife Alise, daughter Amelie, 10, and son Isaac, nine, and says they are loving life in Milton Keynes.

"It's a lovely place to live and we have the best of both worlds here.

"We look out on fields but five minutes drive and we're in town."

Council to look at drink claims

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

ENVIRONMENTAL health officers are to look into claims there is a fermentation problem with a popular drink produced at the city's Coca Cola factory.

A letter received by Milton Keynes Council and MK NEWS claims more than 200 complaints were received by the global drinks company over the summer and autumn from customers whose children have suffered from stomach aches, vomiting and diarrhoea after drinking Capri-Sun, which is made at the factory in Northfield.

But a Coca-Cola spokesman has hit back at the claims, saying the company has only received 1.66 complaints per million pouches produced over the entire year.

The company makes about 48million cases of drinks every year.

The anonymous letter was prompted after an article was published in the Daily Echo in Bournemouth in October after a father claimed to have discovered his son drinking a 'fermented' Capri-Sun juice pouch.

It has called for 'further investigation to be conducted by the legal authorities'.

Speaking to MK NEWS, a spokesman for Milton Keynes Council said: "We believe we have received the same letter you have.

"Our next step will be to engage the company."

A spokesman for Coca-Cola Enterprises said: "We have been making a wide range of soft drinks at our site in Northfield since 1976 and take great pride in our facility's long-standing reputation for quality.

"As part of the manufacturing process, we continually monitor our production to ensure we maintain the highest possible standards.

"Capri-Sun is a hugely popular brand and we take any consumer complaints very seriously.

"But such calls to our helpline are extremely rare – this year, for instance, we have had no more than 1.66 complaints per million pouches produced."

MK fifth for teacher attacks

MILTON Keynes has been named the fifth worst place for violence on teachers in the classroom in the country.

A freedom of information request by The Sun on Sunday showed that there were 779 attacks on teachers by pupils in the academic years of 2011/12 and 2012/13.

Hampshire came out on top with 3,709 incidents across the two years, while there was 828 in fourth placed Leicester.

A spokesman for Milton Keynes Council said that 'less than half' of local authorities responded to the FOI and that this represented 'a partial view of the national picture'.

Poll says no to skatepark

THOUSANDS of people have voted in our online poll asking whether a new skatepark should be built in the city.

As reported in last week's MK NEWS, there are plans to put a 'multi-wheeled activity centre' in a field next to MK Snap in Walnut Tree. Walton Community Council has moved to reassure residents it will learn from problems at other skateparks in the city such as Broughton Gate.

But 4,389 voted against the idea, with 2,757 in favour.

Social worker given caution

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

A SOCIAL worker who was sacked tried 'to pursue an inappropriate friendship with a service user', a conduct and competence committee hearing has heard.

The Health and Care Professions Council meeting heard Sam Shayegan was working as a social worker for Milton Keynes Council for a family between July 5, 2011 and February 28, 2012.

The panel was told Mr Shayegan lent a woman known as 'Ms G' £180 and massaged her back to alleviate persistent pain.

The panel found there was 'a serious failure by Mr Shayegan to maintain professional boundaries with a vulnerable service user'.

Although Mr Shayegan denied that he was trying to pursue a personal relationship, the panel found him guilty of misconduct after he failed to produce a diary recording his contact with Ms G and had difficulty recording the circumstances in which he lent her money.

When giving evidence, Mr Shayegan said he was 'truly sorry and remorseful' and he had learned a hard lesson.

He was given a two-year caution order.

He is now working for another employer after the panel found that 'a suspension order would be disproportionate to the level of misconduct found'.

Men arrested on cocaine charges

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A 29-YEAR-OLD man has been charged with supplying Class A drugs and possessing a kilogram of cocaine as part of a police operation.

Ali Amin, from Bletchley, was one of six city men arrested for drug offences, leading to the recovery of about £20,000 of cash and drugs.

More than 100 officers carried out nine warrants on Tuesday last week under the Misuse of Drugs Act throughout the Thames Valley, Northamptonshire and London areas.

They were part of Operation Rustic, which targets groups believed to buy and supply cocaine, predominantly within the Milton Keynes and Northamptonshire areas.

Two other men were arrested from Bletchley – a 30-year-old and a 23-year-old.

Two men from the Milton Keynes area, aged 34 and 43, were also arrested, along with a 43-year-old from Bradwell.

They were all arrested for various drugs offences, including suspicion of conspiracy to supply cocaine, and have been released on police bail until January and February.

Mr Amin is due to appear at Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court in January.

A wrangle over building costs

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A TOWN council is suggesting residents from a neighbouring village pay towards the upkeep of a community facility after their parish council refused to pay.

Woburn Sands Town Council (WSTC) is proposing a £10 fee for Aspley Guise residents who use the facilities at the Institute, which includes the library, a nit and natter group and an Age UK advice service.

The suggestion follows Aspley Guise Parish Council (AGPC) refusing to pay towards the cost of maintaining the building after parish councils in Aspley Heath, Wavendon and Bow Brickhill agreed to contribute £1,250 a year.

AGPC said it does not have the money after deciding to focus its funds on traffic calming schemes in the village.

Councillor Ian Pickering, chairman of AGPC, said: "This is unusual as a lot of the time we co-operate with WSTC. We don't have enough money, but we did suggest we encourage our residents to raise money in our village events. However, this was rejected and it is surprising that they didn't discuss this suggestion with us."

What do you think?
www.mkweb.co.uk

Lynne Stapleton, clerk of WSTC, said: "It is currently just a suggestion and a few people have said they would be happy to pay £10."

THINK AND GROW RICH

Think And Grow Rich is of course the title of a famous book written by Napoleon Hill in the thirties. He was commissioned by the famous steel magnate Andrew Carnegie to write a book based on a philosophy of achievement. It took Napoleon Hill 20 years to write it and it became an all time classic. It was the first ever book on the subject.

The clue to achieving success in your life is in the title. THINK. It's something very few people do in my experience. By thinking I mean really thinking.

Have you got a financial plan or more specifically a retirement plan? Have you really thought about it or are you just ambling through life hoping that one day you will be able to afford to retire? Well in my experience "failing to plan is planning to fail." So you need to think through your retirement strategy. More importantly you need to write it down. In detail. How much income you will need in retirement, when you'd like to retire, what will be your expenses in retirement, what kind of lifestyle do you want and so on.

So how do you create such a retirement plan? Well what we do for clients is help them put together their retirement strategy using a tool of ours

Tony Byrne
Chartered and Certified Financial Planner Author of Wealth Magic called Money Forecast. Basically you complete one of our questionnaires about your income and expenditure, your assets and liabilities and other information before returning the completed form to us. We then input your data onto Money Forecast and produce a plan for you. To age 100! Yes you read it right. Age 100. We then incorporate into your plan various what if scenarios based on your wishes.

Once clients see their plan for the first time they are usually very pleased to find they have a track to run on and become empowered to control the rest of their lives until they become financially free when they want.

If you are approaching retirement and/or considering early retirement and need advice why not get in touch?

Man's best friend: Tom Wallace with labradoodle Guinness, who he says has given him his life back

Life-changing dogs

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A LIFE-SAVING charity has a three-year waiting list for its training programmes due to a lack of funds.

Medical Detection Dogs, in Great Horwood, trains dogs to help people suffering with conditions such as cancer, diabetes and nut allergies.

It costs up to £10,000 to train a medic alert dog and to reduce its waiting list the charity needs to find the funds to pay for a new trainer and volunteers to house the animals.

Tom Wallace, 57, suffers from type two diabetes and has to constantly monitor his blood sugar levels.

The Old Farm Park resident has a dog called Guinness – a two-year-old labradoodle who can smell when his blood sugar levels are getting dangerously low or high. He then sniffs, licks and nibbles Tom's hand to alert him, before going to fetch his injection kit.

Tom said: "Guinness has given me my life back and he has saved me going into hospital more than a few times this year."

Clare Gates, the charity's CEO, said: "Medic alert dogs make an incredible difference for our clients who live in fear every day. But many people are unaware of our work and we desperately need support."

Preparing for winter weather

Information and advice in case of snow and ice

Salt Bins

There are over 400 yellow salt bins at various locations around Milton Keynes which are filled by the council. They are installed for general public use only. The maintenance and filling of the bins is paid for out of the council's budget. We ask that there is a fair usage of the grit supplied in these bins and the grit should be put onto public roads, redways and footways and not private roads or driveways.

If a grit bin becomes empty you can let the council know by filling in the online form at www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/streets-transport-and-parking or by calling 01908 252570. The authority will monitor conditions following extreme weather in areas not serviced by gritting routes or existing grit bins and if required we can deliver builders bags of grit to assist the public.

Gritting and Snow Ploughing Routes

The council aims to keep priority roads and footways safe to use and clear of snow and ice over the winter. The network is categorised by priority, a map of the different priority roads can be viewed at www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/streets-transport-and-parking. Priority roads include but are not limited to the strategic routes, grid roads, bus routes, main urban and rural link roads. The gritting team monitor daily weather reports and check our three new weather stations regularly to make informed decisions of what action is required. You can keep up to date with the gritting team's report on twitter @twit4gritMK

Potholes

The Highways team have spent the last eight months repairing road defects including potholes so the road network is well placed going into winter. We fix around 20,000 road defects over the year and are investing an additional £50m to improve Milton Keynes' road, redways and footways. Inevitably cold and icy weather will create potholes which can be reported to us at www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/streets-transport-and-parking or call 01908 252570

New parking plan 'not good enough'

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

A CAMPAIGN group is fighting revised plans to build a car park in the city centre.

In July last year, plans by Bidwells to knock down trees between Norfolk House and Ashton House in North Sixth Street to make way for a 37-space car park were rejected by Milton Keynes Council.

Now another application has been submitted, which has cut the number of spaces to 27 and keeps the trees in the area.

The council's development control committee is due to discuss the proposal at a meeting tomorrow night, but officers have recommended it is approved to 'increase the marketability' of Norfolk House and Ashton House, which are said to have a lot of vacant office space.

But pressure group Xplain, which fought the previous plans, is still not happy with the idea.

It claims there is enough car parking in the area without the need to tarmac a green area of Central Milton Keynes.

"This is the thin end of the wedge," said Linda Inoki.

"It isn't good enough. They should have heard the message loud and clear last time and there is already enough parking around here.

"We are hoping councillors stand up and say that there is no need for it here. This isn't a sustainable development."

Ken Baker and Barry Steadman, who helped design the centre of the city for the Milton Keynes Development Corporation in the 1970s, have added their support to Xplain's campaign.

Bidwells was unavailable for comment at the time of going to press.

■ Other items due to be discussed at tomorrow's meeting include plans for a mobile veterinary unit at Dobbies Garden Centre and seven art sculptures on land near York House in Stony Stratford.

Charity aim for Henry's parents

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

THE parents of a four-year-old who lost his battle with cancer earlier this year are aiming to set up a charity as a lasting legacy to him.

The appeal set up to raise money for Henry Allen, from Bletchley, to receive treatment abroad for neuroblastoma comes to an end on New Year's Eve.

But his mum and dad, Dawn and Mark, want to create a lasting legacy for their son who touched the hearts of thousands of people in MK before he died of the disease, which affects the nervous system.

"There is definitely going to be a lasting legacy to Henry," said Kerry Shephard, who worked on the Henry Allen Appeal.

There is still £127,000 in the appeal pot, which will now be put into the emergency fund for charity Families Against Neuroblastoma.

The news comes after Ben Christensen ran 100 miles in less than 24 hours to raise money for the cause.

For more Henry Allen stories: www.mkweb.co.uk

Runner: Ben Christensen raised cash for the Henry Allen Appeal

He trained for nine weeks, running more than 3,000 miles, before running 100 miles without stopping in 23 hours and 42 minutes.

He said: "Although the money raised cannot go towards Henry's treatment, it will ensure that a child suffering from this terrible disease may be able to benefit, thus helping to create a legacy for little Henry.

"Big thanks to LimeSquare Milton Keynes for providing a support vehicle.

"Also a massive thank you to my family, support team, people sending good wishes, the Henry Allen Appeal team for keeping me going and for the great turn out to see me at the finish."

Falcons get kit off to raise vital funds

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

ICE hockey players have bared all to help raise vital funds that could help keep their club going.

MK Falcons, who play in the national Premier League, decided to take their kit off for a 2014 calendar – after last year's attempt proved a hit with fans and raised £1,500.

The female team is purely self-funded and relies heavily on local sponsorship and fundraising activities to ensure they can continue to play.

The team's captain, Rachel Clough, said it is hoped this year's calendar will provide the cash they need to continue to play – and even result in them getting some sponsorship.

"There is a real lack of sponsorship in women's sport at the moment," she said. "We're hoping to raise more than last year, £2,000 would be a nice sum to get. Securing funds is vital because it costs about £10,000 just for ice fees and we pay subs ourselves."

This year's attempt features the players in Calendar Girl-style poses and while Rachel admitted she was 'nervous' at the photo shoot she hopes the end result is something 'tasteful'.

The Falcons recently returned to MK following a spell training in Oxford while preparations for the new MKIce rink was being built.

The calendars are available to buy at the rink, located in the former Waitrose store in the Food Hall, CMK.

Calendar girls: Members of the MK Falcons ice hockey team have stripped off to raise cash which will help them to play

it's panto time

A guide to local pantomimes gracing our stages this festive season!

SNOW WHITE AND THE SEVEN DWARFS
Milton Keynes Theatre Until January 12

IF it's a sprinkling of magic dust you're after onstage this Christmas, don't go to MK Theatre.

If it's a great mountain of the glittery stuff you crave, get down to Marlborough Gate now. They know how to do lots of things well at MK Theatre but the annual panto just gets better and better every year.

Snow White is a real favourite among fairy tales anyway. It has all the elements you could ever want in a traditional family show: sweet-natured heroine, handsome prince, evil stepmother, loveable funny man and, in this case, seven dwarfs who work together as a fantastic, lion-hearted dream team led by Hollywood superstar Warwick Davis.

Davis' career has spanned film, TV and stage appearances but I can guarantee, by the time that the big walkdown finale occurs, you will see him in a spectacularly new and different light.

The Christmas pantomime is often a child's first experience of theatre. The show doesn't have to be a star-studded celeb-fest, the sets and costumes don't have to be diamond-encrusted but it does have to be funny - in an age appropriate kind of way (ie: no smutty or discriminatory gags) and it must be performed with genuine feeling, not just treated like a joke that everyone, except the youngest members of the audience, are in on.

The MK panto cast is impressive and the sets and costumes are stunning but the audience, however young or old, aren't patronised or ever excluded from the fun.

Snow White doesn't have a Dame (and it's all the better for that) but it does have a wickedly funny stepmother in Jennifer Ellison, a brilliantly clever and funny Herbert the sidekick, in Kev Orkian, two delightfully engaging lovers in Kate Stewart and Shaun Dalton and a terrific supporting cast.

It's a real Christmas cracker of a show.

Mince Pie Magic

UNBELIEVABLY EASY MINCE PIE RECIPE

You can throw the dough around and the mince pies still come out crisp and biscuity in this kid-friendly Christmas recipe.

INGREDIENTS

- 225g cold butter , diced
- 350g plain flour
- 100g golden caster sugar
- 280g mincemeat
- 1 small egg , beaten
- icing sugar , to dust

Prep 30 - 40 mins
Cook 20 mins
Can be frozen uncooked

1. To make the pastry, rub the butter into the flour, then mix in the sugar and a pinch of salt. Combine the pastry into a ball - don't add liquid - and knead it briefly. The dough will be fairly firm, like shortbread dough. You can use the dough immediately, or chill for later.

2. Preheat the oven to 200C/gas 6/fan 180C. Line 18 holes of two 12-hole patty tins, by pressing small walnut-sized balls of pastry into each hole. Spoon the mincemeat into the pies.

3. Take slightly smaller balls of pastry than before and pat them out between your hands to make round lids, big enough to cover the pies. Top the pies with their lids, pressing the edges gently together to seal - you don't need to seal them with milk or egg as they will stick on their own. (The pies may now be frozen for up to 1 month).

4. Brush the tops of the pies with the beaten egg. Bake for 20 minutes until golden. Leave to cool in the tin for 5 minutes, then remove to a wire rack. To serve, lightly dust with icing sugar. They will keep for 3 to 4 days in an airtight container.

Season's Eatings

SPICED PARSNIP BUBBLE AND SQUEAK

Try this new twist on a traditional Boxing Day classic and prolong the festive celebrations that little bit longer!

INGREDIENTS

800g parsnips, chopped into chunks
1 tsp turmeric
1/2 Savoy cabbage or 300g Brussels sprouts, finely shredded large handful frozen peas juice 1/2 lemon
50g butter
1 tsp cumin
1 tbsp garam masala
1 bunch coriander, chopped
1 red chilli, deseeded and finely chopped
2 coriander sprigs, to serve

1. Tip the parsnips into a pan of cold water with the turmeric and a little salt. Boil for about 12 mins until they are on the brink of collapsing. While the parsnips are cooking, blanch the cabbage or sprouts in another pan of boiling water for 3 mins until tender, adding the peas for the final minute, then drain.

2. Drain the parsnips well, then tip back into the pan and roughly mash with the lemon juice and half the butter. Then beat in all the other ingredients except the remaining butter, and season with salt. Heat the remaining butter in a non-stick frying pan about 28cm in diameter, and press the parsnip mixture into the pan. Cook until crisp underneath, then turn over with a fish slice. (Don't worry if it breaks at this point, it will hold eventually.) Keep cooking until crisp on the other side, then slide onto a plate and flip back into the pan again. Keep on doing this until you have a crisp, flattened cake. Serve on a plate or board, cut into wedges.

A few simple guidelines were set out to ensure that it was always a pleasure to do business with Homesure. No dubious sales techniques, false promises or underhand tactics, just straight forward good deals, a great product for a fair price. Those initial principals have not changed. Therefore, you are invited to have a FREE NO OBLIGATION QUOTATION in the comfort of your own home or online, or to visit our QUOTE CLINIC. Step back in time: Take part in carols as part of a Victorian Christmas at Milton Keynes Museum

FESTIVE family fun is taking place across the city this week. Here MK LIFE picks out some cracking events to help you get into the Christmas spirit

THE traditional Christmas Carols by the Lake takes place on Sunday.

The community is welcome to join in the festive fun at Willen Labryinth, Willen Lake North, from 3.30pm.

Parking is available at the nearby sports pavilion off Portland Drive.

All ages are welcome to this free event and booking is not required. So turn up with a lantern, wrap up warm and enjoy!

There will be a whole Christmas Kingdom to explore at Mead Open Farm over the festive season.

Running every day until Monday, there's more than 7,000sq ft of fun to find.

Attractions include the Reindeer Express, which can transport you across the complex as if you're in the company of Rudolf himself.

There is also an enchanted snowflake forest, a miniature Christmas village for the elves and a toy shop jam packed with presents.

Visitors can also see real reindeer and pay a visit to Santa in his grotto for some last minute requests.

The park is open daily from 10am-6pm and ticket prices vary. For more information and to book tickets visit www.meadopenfarm.co.uk

Relive Christmas past by celebrating in the style of our Victorian ancestors at Milton Keynes Museum.

There's just three more days left to enjoy a soft mulled wine served by one of the faithful butlers. You can join in with some traditional Christmas carols in the parlour and make your own presents with some craftwork in the barn. There's also a chance to make a Christmas loaf and roast some chestnuts on an open fire. But don't forget when you see Queen Victoria to bow or curtsy!

The event takes place from 4.30-7pm on Friday and 1.30-6pm on Saturday and Sunday.

Tickets from the museum cost £7.50 for adults, £6 for concessions, £22 for a family (two adults and up to four children) and under fives go free.

Christmas Kingdom: See real reindeer at Mead Open Farm

hobbitreturns

BILBO Baggins continues on his epic quest with 13 dwarves and the Wizard Gandalf to reclaim the lost Dwarf Kingdom of Erebor from the clutches of the dragon Smaug.

The Desolation of Smaug thankfully launches straight into the action, which doesn't let up until the suspenseful ending.

Martin Freeman adds quirky humour as Bilbo but with a dark twist as he is seduced by the power of the One Ring. Orlando Bloom also reprises his role as elf prince Legolas, who provides plenty of gravity defying fights with Orcs.

When Bilbo enters the dragon's den the deep and sinister voice of Smaug looms out of the darkness. Smaug oozes a deadly calm as he slithers between fiery exchanges with Bilbo. Full of suspense and danger, the sharp conversation mirrors Bilbo's treacherous exchanges with Gollum in the first film.

Dragon aside there's still plenty to take in from the scarred Orcs and giant toothy spiders, to the regal pointy ears of the wood elves. Yes, the dragon is the star of the show but there's still plenty of action and character arcs to keep up the fast pace right to the end.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 - SECTION 14(1)(A) THE A5 TRUNK ROAD (A505 DUNSTABLE, CENTRAL BEDFORDSHIRE TO A4146 MILTON KEYNES) (TEMPORARY RESTRICTION AND PROHIBITION OF TRAFFIC) ORDER 201_

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Secretary of State for Transport intends to make an Order on the A5 Trunk Road in Central Bedfordshire and Milton Keynes to enable embankment reinforcement, safety barrier works and footway reconstruction to be carried out in safety.

The works are expected to take place overnight on (7pm-6am) starting on, or after, Saturday 11 January 2014 and to last until March 2014.

The effect of the Order would be to –

1. impose a 40 miles per hour speed limit, in conjunction with narrow lanes for 24 hours daily throughout the works, between points 30 metres north and 380 metres north of its junction with Eastern Way, Hockliffe. Cyclists and pedestrians would be directed onto an adjacent temporary route through the traffic management, and
2. close the A5 from its junction with the A505 Roundabout, Dunstable to its junction with the A4146 Kelly's Kitchen Roundabout, Milton Keynes – diverting northbound traffic via the A505 and A4146 to rejoin the A5 at Kelly's Kitchen Roundabout and vice versa.

Access to and from property would be maintained at all times during the works.

The speed limit (which would not apply to emergency service or special forces vehicles), closures (which would not apply to emergency service, winter maintenance, traffic officer or works vehicles) and diversion routes would be clearly indicated by traffic signs throughout the works.

The Order would come into force on 9 January 2014 and have a maximum duration of eighteen months.

DONS

Dons must press on

needed optimism at stadiummk.

Dons are still 12th, nine points shy of the play-off spots with a game in hand over the sides above them as they go into the busy festive schedule.

The performance at Wolves was full of strength and character with positives all over the pitch but manager Robinson knows it will be meaningless if his side doesn't kick-on from the significant success.

"We are very happy and we have to use this as a catalyst now," said Robinson.

"It's arguably the most perfect performance you'll see from any side, here and anywhere in the country.

"It had everything that I love about football – the passion, the desire, quality, ball rotation, the sharpness of the passing, the quality goals, the great defending, the great saves and two wonderful sets of fans from Wolves and MK Dons – that's why we all love the game."

Robinson disagreed with the notion that the pressure was off his players, saying that some form of result was vital with the Christmas games coming up.

DRIVING FORWARD: Patrick Bamford in action at Wolves
Picture: Andy Handley

MORE DONS ONLINE www.mkweb.co.uk/sport

"We couldn't get defeated and then play Port Vale at home with that immense pressure," he said.

"We had to put a performance in. We got back to basics this week and the solidarity in the team looked like it was back."

Dons host Port Vale on Saturday before a Boxing Day trip to Crawley Town.

They then travel to Brentford on December 29 ahead of hosting Colchester United, who beat Dons 3-1 late last month, to start 2014 on New Year's Day.

Fourteen-goal striker Bamford could be set to play his last games for the club with the Chelsea loanee's deal at Dons expiring on January 5.

Extending that arrangement until the end of season will be top of Robinson's Christmas wish list but speculation continues about the intentions of the Premier League giants, who may prefer to send him out to a club at Championship level now that he has more than proven himself in the third tier.

ICE HOCKEY

Dogs' comeback dashed

LIGHTNING survived a sensational comeback to beat Sheffield Steeldogs 7-6 on Sunday – and ensure that they came away from the weekend with a victory.

After a 4-2 defeat to last year's English Premier League (EPL) champions Guildford Flames at their temporary home of the Coventry Skydome on Saturday, Lightning looked assured to put that loss to bed as they raced into a 6-2 lead in Sheffield.

The Steeldogs, however, had other ideas and they delighted their own fans with five third period strikes – four of them in the final six minutes – to force an unlikely overtime period. Fortunately for Lightning the Steeldogs' momentum stopped there as Blaz Emersic, pictured, struck a golden goal just over a minute into the final session to ensure that the visitors did not waste all of their earlier work.

"There is never a dull moment being an MK Lightning fan," said the club's general manager Vito Rausa.

"Still it is two points we will gladly take." Lightning remain fourth in the EPL, five points ahead of fifth placed Slough Jets who they will meet in a home and away double header this weekend.

They are eight adrift of both Manchester Phoenix and Basingstoke Bison, who are in second and third respectively, and 11 behind leaders Guildford.

Skipper Adam Carr and Stan Lascek were the scorers against the Flames, with both goals levelling the contest before the visitors at the Skydome pulled away.

The fireworks in Sheffield then began when defenceman Ross Green fired Nick Poole's Lightning in front before Carr, Emersic and Lascek registered to make it 4-0.

Andrew Hirst got the Dogs on the board but Janne Jokila made it 5-1 to Lightning before the high drama in the final period.

Ben Morgan netted on the powerplay for Sheffield for 5-2 but the scorer was then given his marching orders for a high stick on Carr.

Lightning's captain took advantage with a strike for 6-2, but a brace from Greg Wood and a strike from Lee Haywood made it 6-5 before Lubomir Korhon levelled with Sheffield's net minder Dalibor Sedlar removed as part of a last gasp gamble.

With Lightning rocking, Slovenian Emersic stepped up to have the final say.

RUGBY UNION

Mixed fortunes as teams are hit by absences

LEADERS Bletchley overcame selection issues to edge out fellow high flyers Thatcham 15-13 and stay at the top of the Southern Counties North division.

The Manor Fields outfit scored two tries in a valuable home success against the side who are third in the league.

Bletchley were given a further boost as second placed Aylesbury also lost – 7-3 at Alchester – meaning that Stu Van Rooyen's men now have a six point gap over their nearest challengers.

"Several were not available due to illness and holiday commitments so this was an excellent performance due to the dominance of their well drilled pack," said Van Rooyen.

A Thatcham penalty came in between an unconverted Kyle Gibbings try and a Dan Read penalty for Bletchley to give the hosts a 8-3 half-time lead.

Another Thatcham kick made it 8-6 before Steve Allen's try, converted by Reed, stretched Bletchley's advantage to 15-6.

There was a nervy finish eight minutes from time thanks to a Thatcham try, with the referee overruling the touch judges to allow the conversion, but Bletchley held out.

Elsewhere, fourth placed Milton Keynes lost more ground with a 42-29 defeat at Drifters.

A depleted City line-up went in front through James Tapley's unconverted try, but Drifters took advantage of Matt Stiles' yellow card for an alleged spear tackle to go in 20-5 at the half.

Further MK tries followed from Phil Powell, Tapley, Kieran McConnell and Lewis Barnett but Drifters kept them at bay.

Bletchley and Milton Keynes will meet on Saturday in the final of the Bucks Shield.

In the Midlands 2 East South, Olney picked up a 24-15 victory over visiting Leicester Forest and are eighth in the standings.

SPORTSSHORTS

NON-LEAGUE FOOTBALL

TEN-MAN Newport Pagnell Town fell to a 1-0 home defeat against Sleaford Town in the United Counties Premier League on Saturday.

Scott Coupland grabbed the goal for the visitors to leave the Swans, who had Robert Tapp sent off, in 16th place. In Division One there was better luck for tenth placed Olney Town who enjoyed a thumping 6-1 away win at Thrapston, thanks to a Deanio Dailey-Browne hat-trick and strikes from Lyle Orange, Darryl Smith and James Wardell.

Spartan South Midlands Division One strugglers Stony Stratford Town were thumped 10-0 at home to Kings Langley.

In Division Two, Wolverton Town blew a 3-1 lead as they eventually drew 4-4 at Tring Corinthians, while Willen drew 3-3 at home to Hale Leys United. There was a win for Old Bradwell United who beat Totternhoe 4-0.

MK Sunday League Premier Division leaders Scot Wharfside Electrical were not in action and nearest rivals Stony Stratford drew 2-2 with Caz Bar. The Garage and New Bradwell drew 5-5 and Inter Faith won 2-0 at Willen.

In Division One, leaders Open University beat New City Saints 6-3, Stoke Hammond won 1-0 at Buckingham United A, Swanfica saw off AFC Padbury 1-0 and Western United hammered MK United 10-1. AFC Santander lead Division Two but didn't play, although second placed Bucks Biz beat Buckingham United B 7-3. Newport Albion won 6-4 at IDW, Stacey Bushes beat Southcott Village B 1-0 and Bletchley Wanderers were 5-1 winners over Stantonbury Social Elite.

HOCKEY

THE Mens' 1sts at Milton Keynes Hockey Club were unable to follow up last week's terrific 4-2 victory at table toppers Spencer as they crashed 4-1 against fellow strugglers Sutton Vallence.

MK ripped up the form book by beating Spencer, who had hitherto won all nine of their matches, for only their third win of the season, but they could not beat Sutton who are 11th in the 12 team league, one place below the city side.

Fixtures in the South Hockey League Premier Division One now take a backseat until January 18, when MK will travel to Sevenoaks.

Elsewhere, the Ladies' 1sts go into the New Year bottom of South Club's Division 3A after a fourth defeat in a row. They lost 4-2 at home to Chiswick and next face Oxford Hawks on January 11.

ATHLETICS

DIANE Baldwin was this year's winner of the 'Watchless Wolverton 5' race, which attracted 32 Marshall Milton Keynes Athletic Club members.

Every runner predicts how long it will take them to complete the five mile course before setting off and the winner is whoever finishes closest to their estimated time.

Baldwin was just nine seconds faster than intended with her time of 36m, 07s, while second place went to Chris Mahon whose 33, 27s was only ten seconds in error. Third went to Jeremy Vick who was 24 seconds out with a time of 29m, 24s – which was also the third fastest time recorded overall.

Hungrier than the Wolves

DONS' stunning 2-0 win at Wolves on Saturday could be just what Karl Robinson's men need to kick-start their League One season.

Before Saturday, Robinson's charges had lost five of their last six league matches and had won just once on their travels all season – the 1-0 victory at Bramall Lane against Sheffield United back in August.

But the win over fallen giants Wolves – a Premier League team just two seasons ago – in their own back yard has revitalised talk of a play-off push and restored much

The LibLabCon cannot be trusted

...it's time for change

Politicians watching porn!

More than 300,000 attempts were made to access porn websites at Westminster last year, confirmed by a Freedom of Information request. They're obviously not doing much work. You deserve better. Vote UKIP.

Tory borrowing binge will bust

Don't believe the hype. It's a phoney boom based on massive borrowing. It will turn to bust. The Tories will leave office in 2015 having doubled Labour's huge deficit of £750 billion to a catastrophic £1500 billion.

Cameron had a train set once!

But that's not why he wants to rip up the countryside with the 'HS2' railway. It's an order from Brussels under the 'TEN-T' directive. It's madness. UKIP is the only party committed to stopping it.

Primary schools at capacity

IT IS because of the huge influx of foreign-born mothers. The LibLabCon knew EU migration would bring chaos. Romania and Bulgaria have full access to Britain from January. UKIP says 'get our borders back'.

UKIP's message was clear…

Our 'No to war in Syria' campaign had a profound effect on the Tories plan to involve Britain in more Middle East mayhem. After a long debate, MPs finally voted against military action. UKIP says, it is for the UN to act.

We want the best for our kids

Good education is vital. Smaller class sizes matter. We need academic selection and education based on ability. Grammar schools worked, we'll bring them back. Tuition fees will be replaced with grants not loans.

First time buyer trap

A child could work it out but not our politicians. Opening our borders to millions of people, faster than we can possibly build homes, has led to a housing crisis and 'beds in sheds'. Subsidised mortgages aren't a solution.

Who are YOU calling a racist?

Having a mature debate about immigration isn't racist, it's realist. It's the poor that suffer the most from EU migration; the minimum wage is fast becoming the maximum wage. UKIP policies are just commonsense.

Britain's elderly abandoned

They worked, they saved, they paid their taxes. Then Labour spent it…mostly on themselves…and buying votes, by giving juicy jobs to their supporters. Ultra low interest rates now demolish pensioners' savings.

Politicians waste our money…

The average household pays £656,000 in taxes over a lifetime. The Department of Energy and Climate Change spent more than £700,000 on business class and premium economy flights in just over two years!

3,921 knife crimes in London...

in the first 4 months of 2013, eleven died. Many more were seriously injured. Unrelated, ATM crime is booming and police say East European gangs are responsible for most of it. UKIP would get tough on crime.

A UKIP Government will...

restore Britain's borders & security. We will ensure quality Public Services, stimulate business with lower taxes and restore local democracy. We will energise Education. Vote UKIP for a better Britain!

Work. Pay tax. Give it away...

407,000 foreigners received handouts last year, a 41% increase since 2008. This year it will be much higher. Benefits cost working people billions. UKIP would get a grip on the benefits system.

Labour and the NHS...

Waiting times are at record levels according to 'Monitor', the NHS regulator. Labour say it's nothing to do with the 4 million migrants they let in during their time in office but 'cuts to nursing jobs'. Does anyone believe them anymore?

The Foreign Aid farce...

We're giving £1 billion a month to countries with space programmes and private jets. Pakistan was given £650m for a 'Rural Schools' project. Then they ordered new submarines for £600m. UKIP would slash foreign aid.

Let UKIP speak!

UKIP regularly polls as Britains 3rd party, ahead of the LibDems. But in proposed TV debates, we've been excluded - we all know why. Nigel Farage would demolish the LibLabCon. Find the truth at ukip.org

UKIP BULLETIN - The truth about the EU

Spot the difference...

Will you vote for an EU puppet next May?

Will you vote for the Blues to keep the Reds out? Or for the Yellows, who are in fact even more Red and who will say anything to get elected? It makes no difference! They're all puppets of Brussels, Berlin...and Big Business, which favours the EU because they get to write the rules that keep small businesses tied up in red tape, keeps wages low with imported labour and overloads our public services. Spoil their day. Vote for change. Vote UKIP!

Goodbye countryside...

Voters are starting to understand what the EU puppets have started, as they see more of our countryside being bulldozed to make way for more housing. Tory planning Minister Nick Boles admits that EU migration has made this inevitable. George Osborne says Green Belt is an 'irritating impediment'.

Our beautiful countryside - once it's gone it's gone forever.

It's time to do something...

Vote Tory, get Clegg
Vote UKIP, get UKIP

Conservative voters thought that voting UKIP would let Labour in but what did they get? Nick Clegg and same sex marriage! Divorced from reality and voters, the old parties are in a muddle. There is NO DIFFERENCE between the Tories, Labour or LibDems on the issues that really matter. They're ALL subservient to Brussels. They ALL want mass immigration from the EU. The Tories latest EU renegotiation and referendum 'promise' is baloney. Their last hope is to buy your votes with a Labour style property boom. It will end in another bust.

Voting Conservative is a WASTED VOTE

The Conservatives are losers. They haven't won a General Election for 21 years, not since John Major in 1992 and statistically, they cannot win the next General Election, whatever gimmicks they think up. A handful of impotent Eurosceptic Tory MPs mislead voters into thinking there is hope. Only UKIP will end the misery and cost of EU membership.

A government's first duty is to its citizens

The old parties are NOT doing enough to make our streets safe. Our taxes are NOT spent wisely on our Public Services but are wasted bailing out the EU. The benefits system is NOT serving the people who need help the most. UKIP wants Britain to be focused more on her own citizens.

We want the high standards of living enjoyed by non-EU countries. We must leave the EU and rejoin the world.
